

7) What happens when you sell the gospel on earthly/worldly basis?

8) What does a shallow Christian live for?

9) How can you discern a person is truly a Christian?

10) (As unbelievers), "If they _____, they won't _____ with those who are, _____ matter how _____ you try to make it." (As believers), "If they _____, you _____ keep them _____, no matter how _____ or challenging the truth."

Quote: "Spiritual defectors are an integral part of the story of Christianity, both past and present. They're in your life and mine, just as they were in Jesus' life. They shouldn't surprise you, defeat you, disappoint you, or cause you to despair." John MacArthur

Quote: "On the reality of spiritual defectors..., "reasons why people who seem to embrace the gospel ultimately turn away from it. Understanding them will help you see how futile it is to invent a use-friendly gospel to appeal to one target audience or another. It will also help you prepare for the rejection the truth is likely to receive.." John MacArthur

Quote: "True believers show a deep humility, a sense of genuine respect for the awe of Jesus Christ."
John MacArthur
