

7) What did the author mean by works that are 'bad-good'?

8) What is the teaching of 2 Thessalonians 1:8?

9) What are the results of 'natural theology'?

10) What should we remember when we have done all we could in reaching someone with the gospel?

11) Who is responsible for who gets saved?

12) What is our responsibility as Christians regarding the gospel?

Quote: In reference to the gospel, "Then, instead of being unbelievable and foolish, these words that are so hard to believe become the only balm that soothes a sinful heart; the only guide through the narrow gate that leads to eternal life; the only truth rich, complete, and holy enough to save a soul from eternal fire."

John MacArthur
