□ Read chapters 34-36 and answer the following questions from pages 339-366.

- 1) In Psalm 27:4 what was the “one thing” King David was seeking?

- 2) Does it offend God to love others?

- 3) What fuels our joy, love and longing for others?

- 4) “In eternity, past _____ and sorrows won’t _____ God or us. We’ll be _____ of choosing not to _____ or _____ on anything that would _____ Heaven’s joy.”

- 5) What is the earthly marriage to reflect?

- 6) Will there be relationships in Heaven?

- 7) What does the doctrine of “infant salvation” appear to teach?

8) What concerns did Alcorn have regarding the doctrine of “infant salvation”?

9) What will not happen in our relationships in Heaven?

10) What is the one thing that human relationships will not do in Heaven?

11) Why will knowledge of those in Hell not spoil our joy of Heaven?

12) What does Jonathan Edwards think we will learn from the misery of the wicked?

13) What does every unbeliever reject?

14) What does Alcorn say will help knit us all together in Heaven?

Randy Alcorn, “But the beauty is that Heaven will bring as many new developments as Earth ever did, and eventually for more. We won’t begin to run out of things to think about or talk about. The reservoir won’t run dry. It will be replenished daily, forever expanding.”
