

BIBLE STUDY -- KNOWING GOD

Reading Assignment: Preface and Chapter One: The Study of God

FORWARD

- 1) What was the difference between the ‘Balconeers’ and the ‘Travelers’, as an analogy with our walk with God?

- 2) What was the main purpose for the author writing the book?

CHAPTER ONE

- 1) In Spurgeon's sermon, how does the ‘contemplation of the Divinity’ effect a person?

- 2) Why is the study of God a worthwhile and practical endeavor for Christians?

- 3) What does Theology mean? (Not found in the book)

- 4) List the five basic truths of the knowledge about God that Christians have?
 - A)
 - B)
 - C)
 - D)
 - E)

- 5) What will our study of God involve?

- 6) What happens to us if our motive for studying theology is for 'knowledge sake'?
- 7) In our pursuit to know God, everything we learn must not be a theoretical one, but one of a _____ concern?
- 8) In Psalm 119, the Psalmist supreme desire was to _____ and _____ God Himself.
- 9) The purpose of the Psalmist hunger to understand God's truth is that his _____ will _____ to it and his life be _____ to it.
- 10) Read over the author's section on meditation (page 23) a couple times, then in your own words write your definition of meditation.