

Life in the Father's House

A Member's Guide to the Local Church

Lesson #5 "Fulfilling Our Roles as Men and Women"

Read Chapter Five and answer the following questions from pages 95-118.

1 Corinthians 10:31 "Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God."

- 1) What happens when the roles of men and women are ignored in the church?

- 2) What determines the spiritual welfare of a local church?

- 3) What are the three marks that the Lord expects of the men in His church?

- 4) List one of the reasons that there has been a rise in the unbiblical role of women in leadership.

- 5) What is the key to exciting personal Bible study?

- 6) What two Scripture passages give us the character traits that should be in every Christian man?

- 7) "Traditional views that are _____ in _____ doctrines have in fact been _____ by God throughout history to _____ respect for women, not _____ them."

- 8) Why has God clearly placed restrictions on the ministries of women in the church?

- 9) What are the four key marks God has designed for women in the local church?

- 10) In 1 Corinthians 11:3-10; 14:34-38 and 1 Timothy 2:11-14, list the two things that are clear and not open for discussion in regards to women's role in the church?

- 11) What does leadership bring that the average person do not expect?

- 12) Women are instruments in God's plan for the teaching of whom within the local church?

- 13) "Women can make a tremendous _____ to the _____ and the world from the _____ up instead of from the _____ down."

- 14) Why can women never legitimately say, "I don't have anything to do for Christ"?

- 15) What does Satan tempt Christian women to do in the local church?

Quote: "Any open-minded person will also realize that the tasks God has assigned to women are not insignificant, but very important. In fact, they are every bit as important as the tasks that God has assigned to the men. They are different in some respects from the tasks of men, but just because they are different doesn't mean that they are unimportant."