Quote: "...Our picture of God is the most important thing about us." Steven Lawson

Quote: "The popular and erroneous idea in our time is that we supply something that He lacks, as though God actually needs us. Some people imagine that God created humans to supply some need of His. They suppose that God was unfulfilled and needed to be loved or that He was lonely and needed company. Others imagine that we are absolutely necessary to carry out God's work of redemption as if God somehow depends on us." Steven Lawson
