

Tell the Truth

Lesson #15 "How to Communicate Personally"

□ Read the first part of chapter Thirteen (pages 180-193) and answer the following questions.

- 1) "We can become so _____ with _____ what to _____ that we _____ get around to _____ it!"
- 2) Why do we need to re-examine our evangelism?
- 3) How can we witness with confidence and expectantly?
- 4) What is the weakness of "Relational Evangelism"?
- 5) "Our high view of _____ derives from our high view of _____. Our _____ should be _____ with our _____."
- 6) When Christ deals with the woman at the well, what did He never do?
- 7) All of us are _____ to step out in _____ in _____ of our relationships with _____."
- 8) How should we present the gospel to the 'Ignorant and Indifferent'?

9) How do we witness to a “Synthetic Christian”?

10) How are we to deal with “The Seekers”?

11) What are the four things we should do in dealing with the “cults”?

12) How should we direct the conversation with unbelievers?

13) Why do we not need to pray for more opportunities to witness?

14) What two questions does James Kennedy ask unbelievers?

15) How can we avoid theology from becoming abstract in our witnessing?

Quote: “We must learn to become assertive without being obnoxious.” Will Metzger

“Evangelism is asking the right questions.”