

Tell the Truth

Lesson #16 “How to Communicate Personally #2”

□ Read the middle part of chapter Thirteen (pages 193-197) and answer the following questions.

- 1) How are we to respond when people show no interest in the Gospel at all?

- 2) What happens when professing Christians are in the church?

- 3) “Which is better, to _____ people _____ into the Kingdom of God and give them a _____ basis for their _____ salvation, or to speak the _____ and let them go until God’s good _____ is right?”

- 4) How can we know that the Holy Spirit is with us in our witnessing?

- 5) Why are some people hostile toward the Gospel?

- 6) How are we to approach people who are indifferent to the Gospel?

- 7) Why would a person not be interested in coming to Christ?

- 8) What does “persistent indifference” to Jesus teach us?

- 9) What shaped our Lord’s approach with unbelievers?

- 10) How can a Gospel outline become a hindrance? How can we avoid this?

- 11) To what elements of the Gospel should we always bring sinners?

- 12) Why must we focus upon God as our Creator in our witnessing today?

- 13) What must our confidence be in while witnessing?
