

Tell the Truth

Lesson #7 “The Whole Gospel to the Emotions”

- Read Chapter Six and answer the following questions.

“Deep Theology is the best fuel of devotion; it readily catches fire, and once kindled it burns long.”

F.W. Faber

- 1) How do we show a disinterest toward sinners in presenting Christ?
- 2) Regarding the subject of emotions, how has the church become schizophrenic?
- 3) Where did our emotions come from?
- 4) Emotions have a _____ place in our lives, but they are not to _____ our lives.
_____ is to lead, with emotions and will _____.
- 5) Why should we be passionate in our witnessing?
- 6) When was the last time you had pain, sorrow and tears for unconverted sinners? How can we feel more for those who reject Christ?

7) What did the bus driver remember most about the author?

8) In being passionate in our witnessing what must we be careful of?

9) Look up the following verses and summarize the condition of man's emotions toward God in his natural state: Romans 1:30, Romans 8:7, Job 21:14, Psalms 107:11, 2 Timothy 3:4, James 4:4.