

8) What two things were necessary for the ritual of the two goats to be meaningful to an individual Jew?

9) How does Jesus in reality represents the symbol of the two goats?

10) What is the conscience like in a growing Christian?

11) In light of an accusatory conscience, “It is here that we must by _____ see Jesus _____ our sin and _____ it away _____ from the _____ of God.”

12) How do we experience cleansing subjectively?

13) How is the work of expiation and propitiation seen in the two goats and Christ?

Quote: “It would have been a blasphemous affront to a holy God to send one goat away into the desert without first sacrificing the goat whose blood symbolized the blood of Christ that alone propitiates the wrath of God” Jerry Bridges

Quote: “The work of Christ is finished. Nothing more remains to be done. God’s wrath has been propitiated. Our sins have been removed. The question, is will we appreciate it, not only at our initial moment of salvation, but for our day-to-day acceptance with God?” Jerry Bridges
