

Trusting God: Even When Life Hurts

Lesson #10 "Knowing God's Love"

□ Read Chapter Nine and answer the following questions.

Romans 8:35, 37 "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

37 Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us."

1) The Scriptures teach, "That God's _____ is just as _____ in times of _____ as it is in times of _____."

Quote: "That 'He cares not' is just as unthinkable as that 'He can not.'" Philip Hughes

2) During times of adversity, what are we tempted to question regarding God?

3) What is impossible regarding the nature of God?

4) What attribute of God does Satan have a tendency to attack?

5) We cannot avoid being tempted, but what can and must we avoid?

6) What is the most compelling evidence of God's love?

7) No earthly _____ could _____ with the eternal joy of our names _____ in Heaven (Luke 10:20). In like manner, no earthly _____ can compare with that awful calamity of God's _____ judgment in hell."

8) Why do we find it difficult to see ourselves as wretched and rebellious sinners?

9) Why does the author stress the sinfulness of man in a chapter on the love of God?

10) What should we do when we are tempted to doubt God's love for us?

11) Why and how are we to reason ourselves through adversity?

12) Why can God's love for us never change?

13) "In Isaiah 40:10-11, "God's sovereign _____ and _____ care are _____ for the _____ of His people."

Thought: "Our greatest need is not freedom from adversity."

Psalms 103:11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him.
